

The Northern Lights are active in Yellowknife 24/7. However, late winter is the best time to see it. This is when the nights are long and arctic high pressures make the sky incredibly clear.

